Ownership

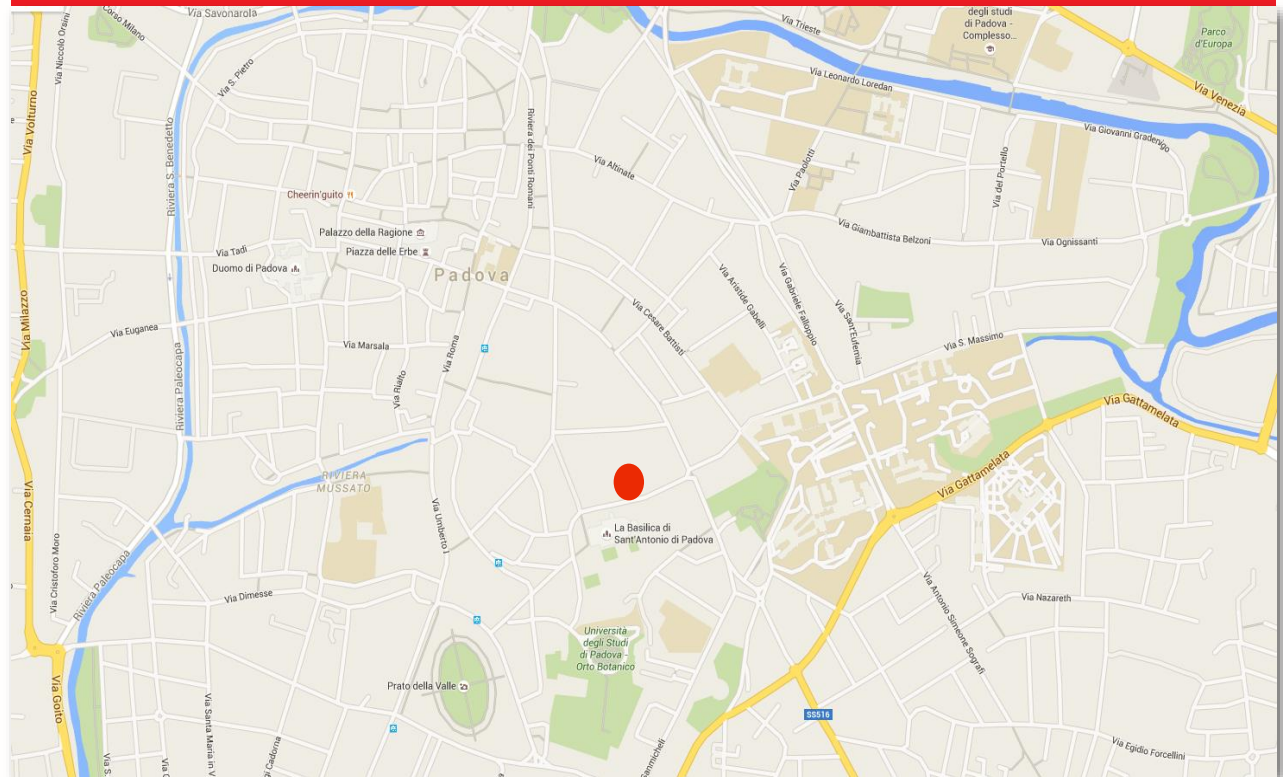

100% FIV – Extra Fund

Location

The property complex consists of one floor-to-ceiling building previously used as a barracks, located in the historic centre of Padua, in Via Cesarotti, 7, near the Basilica del Santo.

The building, used until 2012, is presently vacant. The main building dates from the 15th century, while the building sitting to the north is of a much more recent period. Access is from Via Cesarotti, through two private main entrances, and these are the only means of access to the building. It stands two floors above ground, plus an attic that is partially usable and a basement.
